You wanted to know how i really felt about you? i told you, you never even wrote back to say fuck you or nothing. I was keeping it real with you, but you know what it dont pay to keep it real with nobody that dont keep it real with you. Hated in my heart is thick, not no forgiving you or nobody else, im glad im in here for real cause i aint got time for four people and yeah this from my mouth nobody pushed me to say it. Nobody know what im going through so dont try and understand me. And one last thing you remember that night i went to Mamiés house and the next morning Michelle got killed guess who did that.
