

Comparison of Derek's Statements With The Physical Evidence

Derek's Statements to the Police During His Interrogation	Physical Evidence Found at the Crime Scene or During the Autopsy
Derek said that six men entered the Boskos' apartment through the front door with a clawhammer and pushed their way inside	There was no evidence of forced entry or damage to the entry door, and no evidence anyone had stormed the door
Derek said that six men struggled with Ms. Bosko upon entry into the apartment	There was no evidence of a struggle in the living/dining room area – no furniture was disturbed in the living/dining room area, no pillows on the couch had been knocked to the floor, the four chairs around the dining room table had not been overturned, and none of the small items perched on the television and other surfaces had been unsettled.
Derek said that six men held Ms. Bosko down by her arms and legs while she struggled	There were no bruises on Ms. Bosko's arms and legs and no other defensive or scrimmage injuries on her body
Derek said that six men struggled with Ms. Bosko down the hallway	There was no evidence of a struggle in the 3- foot-wide hallway. No items, papers, or pictures were disturbed on the display shelf or wall, and there were no marks on the wall
Derek said that six men took turns raping Ms. Bosko	There was no evidence of a multi-perpetrator struggle anywhere in the apartment, and Ms. Bosko's vaginal injuries were consistent with a single rapist
Derek said that he ejaculated	The DNA analysis eliminated Derek as the source of any of the genetic material left behind by the rapist
Derek said that six men took turns stabbing the victim	Ms. Bosko had three penetrating stab wounds to her chest which were at an identical angle and 5-inch depth
Derek said that Ms. Bosko struggled the entire time	Ms. Bosko had no defensive or scrimmage injuries or bruises anywhere on her body
Derek said the six perpetrators were Danial Williams, Joseph Dick, Eric Wilson, Geoffrey Farris, Richard Pauley, and himself	Derek and the other five men were eliminated as the source of any of the genetic material found on Ms. Bosko or at the crime scene, and none of the latent prints found in the apartment matched Derek or the other five men
Derek said that Richard Pauley participated in the crime	Pauley had a rock solid alibi: telephone bills confirm that he was at his parents' house talking to his girlfriend in Australia when the crime occurred
